These Postcards were only available at Special Post Officers in Berlin and Kiel The Laboe Naval Memorial is the sweeping brick monolith that is dedicated to those fallen in the battles of World War I and II, but also on the grounds is one of only four remaining U-boats in the world which Germany bought back for the sweet price of a single Deutsche Mark. The tall brick tower at the site was actually built in 1936 to remember those lost in WWI. The tall, curved structure was not designed to resemble any single form or item but was instead meant to simply inspire positive feelings in all those who gaze upon it. After WWII the scope of the monument's remembrance was expanded to include German soldiers who perished in the fighting, but later on the memorial was simply christened to be devoted to. Est £8 - 12

He became Aide - de- Camp to his father in 1852, transferred to the Bengal Horse Artillery in 1854 and was promoted to Lieutenant on 31 May 1857. fought in the Indian Rebellion in 1857 , seeing action during the Siege and Capture of Delhi He was then present at the relief of Lucknow where, as Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, he was attached to the staff of Sir Colin Campbell, Commander-in - Chief India He was awarded the Victoria Cross for actions on 2 January 1858 at Khudagunge The citation reads: Account of Deed On following the retreating enemy on 2 January 1858, at Khodagunge, he saw in the distance two Sepoys going away with a standard. Lieutenant Roberts put spurs to his horse and overtook them just as they were about to enter a village. They immediately turned round, and presented their muskets at him, and one of the men pulled the trigger, but fortunately the caps snapped, and the standard-bearer was cut down by this gallant young officer, and the standard taken possession of by him. He also, on the same day, cut down another Sepoy who was standing at bay, with musket and bayonet, keeping off a Sowar. Lieutenant Roberts rode to the assistance of the horseman, and, rushing at the Sepoy, with one blow of his sword cut him across the face, killing him on the spot, With Details . Est £30 - 34

181 - Signed by Sir Redvers Henry Buller Victoria Cross Holder awarded Zulu War, in 1879 Piece Size 4 ¼ by 1 ½ inches Signed Education at Eton, Purchased a commission in the 60th Rifles in May 1858. Served in the Second Opium War and promoted to Captain before taking part in the Canadian Red River Expedition of 1870. In 1873-74, he was the intelligence officer under Lord Wolseley during the Ashanti campaign, was slightly wounded at the Battle of Ordabai. He was promoted to major and appointed a Companion of the order of the Bath. He then served in South Africa during the 9th Cape Frontier War in 1878 and the Anglo - Zulu War of 1879. In the Zulu War he commanded the mounted infantry of the northern British column under Sir Evelyn Wood. He fought at the British defeat at the Battle of Hlobane, where he was awarded the Victoria Cross for bravery under fire. The following day he fought in the British victory at the Battle of Kambule. After the Zulu attacks on the British position were beaten off, he led a ruthless pursuit by the mounted troops of the fleeing Zulus. In June 1879, he again commanded mounted troops at the Battle of Ulundi, a British victory which effectively ended the war. His VC citation reads For his gallant conduct at the retreat at Inhlobana, on the 28th of March 1879, in having assisted, whilst hotly pursued by Zulus, in rescuing Captain C D'Arcy, of the Frontier Light Horse, who was retiring on foot, and carrying him on his horse until he overtook the rear guard. Also, for having on the same date and under the same circumstances, conveyed Lieutenant C. Everitt, of the Frontier Light Horse, whose horse had been killed under him, to a place of safety. Later on, Colonel Buller, in the same manner, saved a trooper of the Frontier Light Horse, whose horse was completely exhausted, and who otherwise would have been killed by the Zulus, who were within 80 yards of him.
